PRODUCTION STAFF

JOHN COMMAND

John returns to the Edina stage for his 16th Current Jam. His most recent work was as director of "Best Little Whorehouse in Texas" at Bloomington Civic Theater and he will return there next year to do "Pippin" and "Sweet Charity". This summer he will be directing "Funny Girl" at Mound Community Theater. John's last musical at Edina was "Mame." Since then, John has choreographed the 1988 Super Bowl Pre-Game Show, as well as the Disney film "Newsies". He also did the choreography for the films "Sleepless in Seattle" and Prince's "Purple Rain". His television credits include "The Golden Girls", "Evening Shade", "Perfect Strangers", "Step by Step", and "Getting By". We are very happy to have John back at Edina, and the students have enjoyed working with this talented choreographer.

DR. DAVID O. HENDERSON

David came to Edina from an active singing and teaching schedule. He has appeared with many Twin Cities groups, including solo appearances with the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, Minnesota Chorale. and the Plymouth Music Series Ensemble Singers. He came to the Twin Cities after singing for several years in New York with the Waverly Consort, Gregg Smith Singers, and the Norman Luboff Choir. He received a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Minnesota. David lives in Edina with his wife Kris and their children Ryan, 6, Erin, 4 and Megan, 16 months.

DR. ROBERT OUREN, Back up Band Director

Bob is in his ninth year at Edina High School. Before coming to Edina he taught in the Caledonia, Winona and Pine Island school systems. While a graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota he worked with the Concert, Marching and Pep Bands. He earned his undergraduate degree from Winona State University and his Masters and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Minnesota. He studied conducting techniques with Dr. Barry Kopetz, Dr. Richard Lindner, Donald Schleiker, Mallory Thompson, H. Robert Reynolds and Elizabeth Green. He also studied trumpet with Dr. Richard Lindner, Dr. David Baldwin and Gary Bordner of the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. He lives in Edina with his wife, Karen, 17 year old daughter Karissa and 12 year old son Matthew.

SCOTT FAHY - Production Consultant

Scott is responsible for the sound system, lighting design, video production and the audio recording of Current Jam. Scott has worked with The BoDeans, Widespread Panic, 10,000 Maniacs, Sounds of Blackness, Freddie Jones Band, Cece Winans, Johnny Lang, John Michael Montgomery, Pam Tillis, The Blenders, Patti Loveless, Vince Gill, Bryan White, Shania Twain and numerous local and regional acts. He is president of Omni Productions, a full service production managment firm. This is his 12th year with Current Jam.

DIANA J. LELAND, Varsity Choir Director

Diana has taught choral music for a total of twenty-seven years of which twenty-three have been with Edina Schools. She returned to Edina High from Valley View Middle School in September 1999 to direct the Varsity Choirs. Diana was the first director of the Edina HS Varsity Choir from 1975-80. She served the American Choral Directors Association as State President of Minnesota (1979-81), North Central Division President (1984-86), and National President (1989-91). In 1997 she was one of ten teachers selected to receive the Ashland Inc. Teacher Achievement Award for excellence in teaching. From 1980-83 Ms. Leland was engaged as the General Manager for the Dale Warland Singers, a professional chorus based in the Twin Cities area. Currently, she serves as one of 24 board members of the International Federation for Choral Music and is actively involved as an executive officer in the planning for the Sixth World Symposium on Choral Music which will be held in Minneapolis August 3-10, 2002.

ANDREW THOMPSON, Arranger

Andy is a graduate of Edina High School, and has been involved in Current Jam for the past five years. During his formative years, he was a member of the EHS Concert Band, Jazz Band, Greater Twin Cities Youth Symphonies, and countless jazz and rock bands. Currently he is studying music composition and percussion at the University of Michigan School of Music.
